GRADE I FLORIDA DERBY, BOOSTED JEFF RUBY STEAKS TOP JAM-PACKED ROAD TO KENTUCKY DERBY SATURDAY

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Thursday, March 25, 2021) – Saturday will arguably be one of the most action-packed days thus far on the Road to Kentucky Derby 147 with a quartet of qualifying races across the globe led by the $800,000 Florida Derby (Grade I) at Gulfstream Park and the $250,000 Jeff Ruby Steaks (GIII) at Turfway Park. Both races will award the winner 100 qualifying points to the first Saturday in May. The runner-up will receive 40 points while the third and fourth-place finishers, respectively, will receive 20 and 10 points.

The Japan Road to the Kentucky Derby will conclude early Saturday at Nakayama Racecourse with the Fukuryu Stakes at 2:10 a.m. (all times Eastern)

The stakes action continues Saturday at 10:05 a.m. with the $750,000 UAE Derby (GII) in Dubai. A full field of 14 runners were drawn Monday and include four Triple Crown nominees: Godolphin's Rebel Romance, Yiji Inaida's France Go De Ina and Chuck Fipke's Speight'spercomete. The race will award the top four finishers points on a 100-40-20-10 scale.

In Florence, Ky., $100,000 John Battaglia Memorial winner Hush of a Storm along with Canadian Grade I winner Gretzky the Great top a full field of 12 3-year-olds that were entered in the Jeff Ruby Steaks at 6:25 p.m.

Later at 6:40 p.m., Courtlandt Farm's $400,000 Fountain of Youth (GII) winner Greatest Honour will lead an eight-horse field in the Florida Derby.

Wagering on all four races will be available on www.TwinSpires.com.

GREATEST HONOUR MADE 6-5 FAVORITE IN FLORIDA DERBY – Greatest Honour will attempt a sweep of Gulfstream's two-turn Kentucky Derby preps when he starts as a heavy favorite in Saturday's $750,000 Florida Derby (GI). The Shug McGaughey-colt has been installed the 6-5 morning line favorite against 10 rivals over one lap of Gulfstream's 1 1/8-mile oval.

Increasing distances have been kind to the son of Tapit during the South Florida winter season. Breaking his maiden the day after Christmas, Greatest Honour has built up his credentials further with strong tallies in both the Holy Bull (GIII) and Fountain of Youth (GII) in his last two starts. His early odds for the Florida Derby reflect the gap between him and the rest of the local contingent.

“He's been a pleasure all winter. He's never missed a beat. Things have sort of been the same. We just hope it continues,” McGaughey said. “With his stride, I don't think he's a horse with a quick turn of foot, but when he gets going, he covers so much ground that he catches up in a hurry.”

Six-time Kentucky Derby-winning trainer Bob Baffert has sent Spielberg to Florida from California, thus making the Grade II-winning colt the first Florida Derby starter ever for the Hall of Fame trainer. A distant fourth in the Robert B. Lewis (GIII) in his season debut, the Union Rags colt fared better last time when a clear second to champion Essential Quality in the Southwest (GIII), although he was caught flat-footed at the start.

“He's had a lot of races,” Baffert said. “Once in a while he'll run a flat race. He's doing well and I think he will like the mile and an eighth. He sort of comes running, but he's got to ship well and behave himself. And he's got to break well. He can't break like he did the last time.”

The pace of the race figures to come from Collaborate, who broke his maiden by more than 12 lengths over a mile last time for Saffie Joseph Jr., or perhaps the Mark Casse-trained Soup and Sandwich, who's 2-for-2 after a maiden and allowance win earlier this year.

Also among the field are a trio of colts that have tried other Derby preps. Nova Rags finished second by a length to stablemate Candy Man Rocket in the Sam F. Davis (GIII) last out, while Known Agenda was fifth in that same race before taking a track-and-distance allowance over the Gulfstream strip. Papetu, who breaks from the far outside, finished a distant fourth in the Holy Bull and third in the Fountain of Youth, suggesting he'll need to improve a number of lengths to catch Greatest Honour.

The Florida Derby will award Kentucky Derby qualifying points of 100-40-20-10 to the top four finishers. – Vance Hanson/Brisnet.com

BATTAGLIA MEMORIAL WINNER HUSH OF A STORM, GRADE I WINNER GRETZY THE GREAT TOP JEFF RUBY STEAKS – Joseph P. Morey Trust's $100,000 John Battaglia Memorial Stakes winner Hush of a Storm, along with Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Gary Barber's Grade I-winning colt Gretzy the Great top a field of 12 3-year-olds that were entered in Saturday afternoon's 50th running of the $250,000 Jeff Ruby Steaks (GIII) – the premiere stakes event at Turfway Park's meet.

The Jeff Ruby Steaks is one of six stakes events on Saturday's 12-race afternoon spectacular at Turfway, which begins at 1:10 p.m. (all times Eastern). The centerpiece 1 1/8-mile race over the synthetic Tapeta surface is carded as Race 11 with a post time of 6:25 p.m.

The Jeff Ruby Steaks will award the top four finishers points on a 100-40-20-10 scale towards a spot in the starting gate for the $3 million Kentucky Derby presented by Woodford Reserve (GI).

The other stakes races on Saturday's card are the $150,000 Bourbonette Oaks (Listed), a Championship Series race on the Road to the Kentucky Oaks worth 50-20-10-5 points to the $1.25 million Longines Kentucky Oaks (GI); $150,000 TwinSpires.com Kentucky Cup Classic (Listed); the $100,000 Rushaway; the $100,000 Latonia Stakes; and the $65,000 Animal Kingdom Stakes.

Hush of a Storm, trained by Bill Morey and ridden by Santiago Gonzalez, was the 1 1/2-length winner of the Feb. 26 Battaglia Memorial, the local prep for the Jeff Ruby Steaks. The Creative Cause colt had to survive an inquiry and objection in the race after he lagged in and appeared to affect fellow rivals Like the King, Gretzy the Great and Hard Rye Guy in the stretch. Following a review of the race, the stewards issued no change to the order of finish. Hush of a Storm is a perfect 3-for-3 over the Tapeta surface at Turfway. He broke his maiden by 5 1/2 lengths on Dec. 19 and followed up that win three weeks later with a half-length first-level allowance score. His only blemish came in a seven-furlong maiden claiming $150,000 race over the dirt at Churchill Downs. Hush of a Storm drew post No. 2.

One of the other top rivals in the Jeff Ruby Steaks is $250,000 Summer (GI) winner Gretzy the Great. Named after the NHL Hall of Famer Wayne Gretzky, the Nyquist colt was the even-money favorite in the Battaglia Memorial. In that race, he was pressured on the lead for nearly one-mile before giving way to Hush of a Storm. The Mark Casse trainee will get a jockey change to Chris Landeros for the Jeff Ruby Steaks and will break from post 10.

Another horse likely to garner attention in the race is SF Racing, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Stonestreet Stables, Golconda Stable, Siena Farm and Robert Masterson's $200,000 Holy Bull (GIII) runner-up Tarantino. Trained by Rodolphe Brisset, Tarantino began his career on turf at Del Mar in the barn of Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert. He finished second in the $101,000 Zuma Beach at Santa Anita prior to his transfer to Brisset. Immediately after he entered Brisset's string in South Florida, he defeated six rivals in a first-level allowance over the turf at Gulfstream Park. His most recent start was a fourth-place finish in the $300,000 Fountain of Youth (GII) where he was defeated 5 1/4 lengths by Greatest Honour. Jockey Florent Geroux will ride from post 7.

The complete field from the rail out (with jockey and trainer): Like the King (Drayden Van Dyke, Wesley Ward); Hush of a Storm (Gonzalez, Morey); King's Ovation (Albin Jiminez, Dale Romans); Awesome Gerry (Martin Garcia, Saffie Joseph Jr.); Sainthood (Gerardo Corrales, Todd Pletcher); Smiley Sobotka (Declan Cannon, Romans); Tarantino (Geroux, Brisset); Moonlite Strike (Rafael Hernandez, Joseph); Hard Rye Guy (Brian Hernandez Jr. Ian Wilkes); Gretzy the Great (Landeros, Casse); Dyn O Mite (Deshawn Parker, Keith Desormeaux); and Hockey Dad (Rafael Bejarano, Doug O'Neill).

Hard Rye Guy and Hockey Dad were not nominated to the Triple Crown at the early closing but could become eligible with a $6,000 late payment that is due on Monday.

The National Weather Service forecast for Florence, Ky. calls for a gorgeous afternoon of racing with sunny skies and a high temperature of 71 degrees.

JAPANESE, AMERICAN SHIPPERS TACKLE TALENTED LOCALS IN UAE DERBY – Saturday's $750,000 UAE Derby (GII) has attracted an international field in keeping with its venue, the Dubai World Cup program at Meydan. American shippers Ambivalent and Lugamo will line up against Japanese contenders as well as a talented home team including fillies Soft Whisper and Mnasek. The only foreign scoring race on the main Road to the Kentucky Derby, the UAE Derby offers points on the 100-40-20-10 scale applicable to the U.S. leaderboard.

Four of the 14 entrants are coming off the Feb. 20 Saudi Derby on Saudi Cup Day – Japan's Pink Kamehameha, who sprang an upset in his dirt debut; third-placer New Treasure, an Irish Group III scorer who was also trying dirt for the first time; and the well-fancied Godolphin duo of Rebel's Romance and Soft Whisper, respectively fourth and fifth. All are stretching out from that metric mile to the about 1 3/16 miles of the UAE Derby.

Much more had been expected from Rebel's Romance and Soft Whisper in Saudi, and a return to Meydan could see both offspring of Dubawi bounce back to top form. The previously unbeaten Rebel's Romance had edged next-out UAE 2000 Guineas (GIII) winner Mouheebs on this track. A U.S. Triple Crown nominee, Rebel's Romance bids to give trainer Charlie Appleby and jockey William Buick their first UAE Derby victory.

Godolphin colleague Saeed bin Suroor, who has won a record eight UAE Derby trophies, relies on Soft Whisper. The highly regarded filly brought a four-race winning streak to Saudi, capped by a seven-length romp in the UAE 1000 Guineas over Mnasek. If we see that Soft Whisper here, the boys could be in trouble. Note that bin Suroor is responsible for the only filly to win the UAE Derby so far, Khawlah (2011).

Mnasek herself has claims. The Doug Watson filly had no chance of catching Soft Whisper thanks to a slow start in the Guineas, but she roared back to outclass her foes by 6 1/2 lengths in the UAE Oaks (GIII) at this track and trip. The Kentucky-bred daughter of Empire Maker banked 50 points toward the Kentucky Oaks (GI), if connections are inclined to supplement her. Like Soft Whisper, Mnasek gets a four-pound weight concession from the 3-year-old males. Adding to her appeal, both of Watson's past UAE Oaks winners went on to finish second in this race, Polar River (2016) and Rayya (2018).

Carded as the fifth of nine races on the Dubai World Cup program, the UAE Derby is scheduled for 10:05 a.m. (ET), and you can watch and wager at TwinSpires.com. NEXT STOP

After Saturday's action, the Road to the Kentucky Derby Championship Series will reach its penultimate weekend with the first Saturday in May approaching fast.

Next's Saturday's action will feature the $800,000 Blue Grass Stakes (GII) at Keeneland that will be headlined by champion Essential Quality. Other races include the $750,000 Santa Anita Derby (GI) and $750,000 Wood Memorial (GII).

Following this Saturday's quartet of races, there are only five races left on the Road to the Kentucky Derby Championship series.

DERBY DETAIL

EARLY DERBY FAVORITE LIFE IS GOOD SIDELINED WITH ANKLE INJURY — Early Kentucky Derby 147 favorite Life Is Good has been sidelined and is scheduled to have surgery on Friday to remove a small chip from his left hind ankle, according to trainer Bob Baffert.

The colt is expected to resume training later this spring.

FIRST DERBY HORSES ARRIVE AT CHURCHILL DOWNS IN COMING DAYS — The first horses that will be preparing for the May 1 Kentucky Derby are expected to arrive in the coming days to Churchill Downs. One of the first scheduled arrivals is Bryan Bernard, Tagg Team Racing and West Point Thoroughbreds' Louisiana Derby (GII) third-place finisher O Besos. The colt is expected to ship from Fair Grounds on Friday evening and arrive early Saturday morning at Churchill Downs, according to trainer Greg Foley.

Another early arrival will be Godolphin's champion Essential Quality. The colt is likely to arrive next week to Churchill Downs following his scheduled Saturday work at Fair Grounds in New Orleans.

DOWN THE STRETCH — Big Lake, the third-place finisher of the $1 million Rebel (GII), was sidelined earlier this week due to a condylar fracture and will miss the Kentucky Derby. ... There are approximately 100 horses that have arrived to the Churchill Downs backstretch as of Thursday morning. Trainers Juan Cano, Mark Casse, Norm Casse, Greg Foley and Michael McCarthy are among the first to arrive. ... The late nomination period for the Triple Crown will close on Monday. Nominations can be made online at www.thetriplecrown.com.

SCULLY'S DERBY REPORT

Hot Rod Charlie switched tactics to record his initial stakes win, posting a front-running triumph in Saturday's $1 million TwinSpires.com Louisiana Derby (GII) at Fair Grounds. He earned a 100-point prize for winning the first of eight major Kentucky Derby qualifiers.

Based in Southern California, Hot Rod Charlie also showed an affinity for longer distances on the stretch out to 1 3/16 miles.

The Kentucky Derby unfortunately lost a major player over the weekend when early favorite Life Is Good was declared due to a minor injury. The exciting speedster had been favored in the first four pools of the Kentucky Derby Future Wager (KDFW).

Pool 5 of the KDFW opens its three-day run on Friday, providing bettors with a final opportunity to get early parimutuel action on the 147th running of the Kentucky Derby on May 1.

Louisiana Derby

Hot Rod Charlie broke through after placing in his first two stakes attempts.

The dark bay needed four starts to notch his first win, narrowly capturing a five-horse maiden special weight at Santa Anita in early October, and he outran his 94-1 odds when finishing a close second in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (GI) at Keeneland next out.

His 3-year-old campaign began with another solid showing from off the pace, closing to finish a neck third in the Jan. 30

Robert B. Lewis Stakes (GIII) at Santa Anita. Nobody expected the stalker to be showing the way in the Louisiana Derby.

Hot Rod Charlie didn't get away cleanly from the starting gate, but Joel Rosario quickly got him straightened out and aimed his mount straight for the lead, taking a short advantage into the first turn.

I liked the improved speed displayed in the Louisiana Derby, it's a favorable trait for an up-and-coming sophomore.

Midnight Bourbon pressured the pacesetter from the start and loomed a serious threat when drawing alongside at the head of the stretch. Winner of the Lecomte (GIII) and third in the Risen Star (GII), Midnight Bourbon appeared to have plenty left for the final furlongs, but Hot Rod Charlie had more in reserve as well, turning back the challenge to win going away by two lengths under the wire.

Off as the 5-2 second choice, Hot Rod Charlie registered a 96 Brisnet Speed rating at the seldom-used distance. The Oxbow colt did earn a triple-digit number for his runner-up effort in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

Hot Rod Charlie won't be able to dictate terms in the Kentucky Derby, but the dark bay is versatile enough to make his own trip during the early stages. He's owned by Roadrunner Racing, Boat Racing and William Strauss.

Midnight Bourbon weakened slightly in the latter stages of his last two outings, but the hard-knocking type has been in a prime spot to win turning for home in three stakes appearances this season. He's never finished out of the money from seven career outings, and Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen can get a longshot ready for the Kentucky Derby, finishing second with Lookin at Lee at 33-1 in 2017.

O Besos didn't make an impact when making his first stakes attempt in the Risen Star, but the Orb colt got on track in the Louisiana Derby stretch, rallying to miss second by a head. The late runner has some upside for Greg Foley.

Proxy lost ground through the latter stages, checking in fourth as the 3-1 third choice. Risen Star winner Mandaloun was in position to challenge before coming up empty in the stretch, giving way to be a well-beaten sixth. Brad Cox and Florent Geroux had no explanation for the puzzling performance, both being optimistic that it's a one-off performance, and the 13-10 favorite will try to rebound at Churchill Downs.

Up Next

One of three major qualifiers this weekend, Saturday's $800,000 Florida Derby (GI) will feature Greatest Honour, who will seek a sweep of Gulfstream Park's qualifiers after taking the Fountain of Youth (GII) and Holy Bull (GIII).

Greatest Honour didn't corner well in the Fountain of Youth, failing to advance until being guided into the clear at the conclusion of the far turn, and it will be interesting to see how Jose Ortiz rides him on Saturday.

A full field of 12 has been entered for Jeff Ruby Steaks (GIII) at Turfway Park, which has been added as a 170-point qualifier this season. The top four finishers from the Feb. 26 John Battaglia Memorial Stakes – Hush of a Storm, Like the King, Gretzky the Great, and Hard Rye Guy – are all back for the 1 1/8-mile Tapeta test.

Horses shipping in for the Jeff Ruby include Sainthood, who will jump straight to stakes competition for Todd

Pletcher after a Fair Grounds maiden win; Holy Bull runner-up Tarantino; and last-out Santa Anita turf allowance winner Hockey Dad.

Fourteen runners are set for the $750,000 UAE Derby (GII), which is part of the Saturday's Dubai World Cup program at Meydan. – James Scully/Brisnet.com

FUTURE WAGER

Godolphin's undefeated champion colt Essential Quality was made the 3-1 morning line favorite in the field of 24 betting options for Pool 5 of the Kentucky Derby Future Wager ("KDFW") that will span Friday-Sunday.

Pool 5 of the KDFW is the final pari-mutuel opportunity for bettors to get early action prior to the 147th running of the $3 million Kentucky Derby presented by Woodford Reserve (Grade I) on Saturday, May 1. The three-day pool opens Friday at noon (all times Eastern) and will close Sunday at 6 p.m. Wagering will be available on www.TwinSpires.com and other outlets.

Trained by Brad Cox, Essential Quality is currently based at Fair Grounds and is preparing for the April 3, $800,000 Blue Grass Stakes (GII) at Keeneland. The Tapit colt most recently defeated six rivals, including fellow KDFW entrant Spielberg, in the $750,000 Southwest Stakes (GIII) at Oaklawn. Essential Quality is one of three Cox trainees in Pool 5. The others are Shortleaf Stables' $150,000 Smarty Jones winner Caddo River and Juddmonte Farm's $400,000 Risen Star (GII) hero Mandaloun.

One of Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert's top Derby contenders, Life Is Good, was removed from contention for this year's race because he is scheduled to undergo surgery March 26 to remove a small chip in his left hind ankle. Baffert is still well-stocked for the Kentucky Derby with Gary and Mary West's undefeated colt Concert Tour. The son of 2007 Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense is targeting the $1 million Arkansas Derby (GI) on April 10 following his victory in the $1 million Rebel (GII). Along with Concert Tour, the Baffert army also includes Zedan Racing Stables' $100,000 Robert B. Lewis (GIII) winner Medina Spirit along with SF Racing, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Stonestreet Stables, Golconda Stable, Siena Farm and Robert Masterson's Rebel runner-up Hozier and Southwest runner-up Spielberg.

Another horse likely to garner attention in Pool 5 of the KDFW is Courlandt Farm's $300,000 Fountain of Youth (GII) winner Greatest Honour. Campaigned by 2013 Kentucky Derby winning trainer Shug McGaughey III, Greatest Honour is the likely favorite in Saturday's $800,000 Florida Derby (GI).

There are 10 races remaining on the Road to the Kentucky Derby. The remaining race schedule can be found at www.kentuckyderby.com/horses/prep-races.

The Kentucky Derby Future Wager, which features $2 Win and Exacta wagering, provide fans of Thoroughbred racing with opportunities to place bets on possible entrants in the Kentucky Derby at odds that could be far greater than those available on the day of the race.

There are no refunds in the Kentucky Derby Future Wager. Should Churchill Downs officials determine during the duration of this week's three-day pool that one of the wagering interests has experienced an injury, illness or other circumstance that would prevent the horse from participating in the Kentucky Derby, betting on the individual horse will be suspended immediately.

More information and real-time odds are available online at www.KentuckyDerby.com/FutureWager.
